Don't touch me!

It happened one Friday at noon, when a secretary was just about to have her last coffee before closing time. All the office staff had already left, except for the head of department. Usually, he also stops early, but this time he stayed longer. So while the secretary was answering the last e-mails, she felt a warm hand on the back of her neck and how it slowly slid down her back. It was her boss David, who divorced her just 3 weeks ago....
